GENERAL STATEMENT

History and Location The School of Law was established at Loyola University by the Jesuits in October, 1914. The first faculty was organized by the Honorable John St. Paul, then Judge of the Court of Appeal for the Parish of Orleans, and later an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana. Classes were held at night in Alumni Hall of the old College of the Immaculate Conception in downtown New Orleans. After the first year and until 1931, the School of Law was housed in Marquette Hall, on the campus of Loyola University. The day division was organized in 1925. In 1931 the School was moved to the ground floor of Bobet Hall, which was occupied until June, 1941. From September, 1941, until May, 1942, classes were held in Biever Hall. Since May, 1942, classes have been held in the building at 6333 St. Charles Avenue.

Period of Study and Requirements for Degree The curriculum of studies covers a period of six semesters for full-time students and eight semesters for part-time students. All of the students in the evening division are part-time students. Classes are held in both divisions from Monday through Friday. In the evening division classes are held from 7 to 9 P. M. For students entering the School of Law in September of 1948 and thereafter, the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Laws are 78 credit hours of work in the school as outlined in the bulletin. For students who entered before the fall of 1946, the requirements are 72 credit hours, and for all others 75 credit hours.

Approved School The School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is on the list of schools approved by the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association, which approval is dependent upon meeting and maintaining certain standards as to entrance requirements, faculty, library, and curriculum. The School of Law is also registered as an approved school by the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York.

Course of Study The tradition of the Civil Law is a strong influence in Louisiana. Consequently those courses are stressed which are built around the Civil Code of Louisiana and the Code of Practice. Nevertheless, the American case-law technique is emphasized. Basic work is offered in jurisprudence and legal theory, and the courses in torts, commercial law and public law are typical American law school courses.

Objectives Professional studies are of prime importance in a professional school. Nevertheless, the members of the faculty in the School of Law strive to develop in the students an appreciation that the profession demands from a lawyer more than legal learning. Because the faculty is convinced that law cannot be exempted from the influence of morality without exposing juridical procedures in some degree to the arbitrary will of men, natural law philosophy as interpreted by the Scholastics, ancient and modern, is the integrating factor in the entire law curriculum.

Law Library The law library is open every day for the use of students. It contains more than 21,000 volumes, including the reports of the United States Supreme Court and of the inferior federal courts, the National Reporter System, including the New York Supplement, the reports of the courts of last resort of most of the states complete to the National Reporter System, the American Digest System, the leading state, federal, and English digests, the principal law encyclopedias, sets of annotated selected cases, the English Reports, full reprint, and a complete set of the Law Reports, complete sets of most of the leading American legal periodicals, and a large number of standard text-books. The law Library of Chief Justice Edward Douglass White, which was donated to the School of Law, together with gifts of numerous volumes from Branch Knox Miller, Judge Chas. Parlange, Judge John St. Paul, Rev. Jerome Mullin, S.J., J. M. Lapeyre, T. J. Semmes, W. C. Staub, Edward K. Wunderlich and Chas. T. Soniat, form a part of the collection.

Research Reading Room In addition to the general law library, which houses the volumes just enumerated, there has been made available a special library and reading room, which contains leading French legal authorities, together with works on Roman, Swiss, Spanish and other national legal literature. This collection contains one of the most complete groups of French authorities in the State, including many valuable editions of the Louisiana Civil Code.

The faculty and students of the School of Law wish to acknowledge with sincerest gratitude the various donations made by Miss Leonora Del Bondio to the School of Law, which made it possible to improve its facilities and equipment.

Requirements In addition to meeting the requirements for For Admission admission to the College of Arts and Sciences, applicants for admission to the School of Law must have completed their eighteenth year at the time of registration. In accordance with the standards of the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association, students entering the School of Law must present satisfactory proof that they have completed "one-half of the work acceptable for a Bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four-year period of study by the State University or the principal colleges or universities in the State where the Law School is located." The average of all pre-legal work must include grades in all courses a student has attempted and the average must be equal to that required for graduation in the institution where the work is done.

Pre-Legal There is no prescribed pre-legal course. Requirements Students in the College of Arts and Sciences, who wish to enter the School of Law, are advised to study subjects in the field of social science, English literature and composition, and philosophy.

Advanced Standing Students who have successfully pursued a portion of their law course in an approved law school (that is, a school which is a member of the Association of American Law Schools or approved by the American Bar Association), and who are able to meet the entrance requirements of this School of Law, will receive credit for work successfully pursued in such approved school. The right is reserved to refuse such credit in whole or in part, and credit given may be withdrawn for poor work. At least one year's residence is required of advanced students or they will not be eligible for a degree. Therefore, credit given for work in another law school shall not exceed two years.

A student who has attended another law school, and who has been excluded for defective scholarship, is not eligible for admission to this School of Law unless special permission is obtained, which permission shall be in the discretion of the Dean. Special permission will be granted seldom and then only in unusual cases.

Special Students Persons who do not meet the pre-legal requirements may be admitted as special students. They are admitted in the evening division only and they cannot become candidates for degrees. The number of persons who may be admitted in any one year as special students is controlled by the regulations of the Association of American Law Schools.

Applicants who wish to qualify as special students are advised to apply to Professor A. E. Papale, Chairman of the Faculty Committee on Special Students, for the necessary forms and regulations.

The following general regulations apply to all special students:

(1) The applicant must be at least 23 years of age.

(2) There must be some good reason for thinking that the applicant's experience and training have specially equipped him to engage successfully in the study of law, despite the lack of the required college credits.

Combined Courses By a proper selection of courses in the College of Arts and Sciences or the College of Business Administration and in the School of Law a student may complete the requirements for two degrees in less than seven years. Pre-legal students electing to take the combined course must have the approval of the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences or the Dean of the College of Business Administration when they begin their pre-legal work.

Students registered in the School of Law will not be permitted to register for courses in any other school without special permission from the Dean of the School of Law. Permission will be granted only to upper-classmen in special instances. Even in those instances no one will be permitted to take more than three hours of work in another school while he is enrolled in the School of Law.

Examinations and Special Regulations Examinations are given at the end of each semester. The alphabetical system of grading is used.

The quality of work indicated by these grades is as follows:

Grade	Quality of Work
A	Very Good
B	Good
C	Satisfactory
D	Unsatisfactory
F	Failure

To be eligible for graduation a student must have earned 72, 75 or 78 credits, depending on when he entered the School of Law, and he must have earned quality credits equal to the total number of hours in the courses he has attempted including those he has failed.

Quality credits are earned according to the following schedule:

Grade	Quality Credits per Credit Hour
A	3
B	2

Every student in his first year in the School of Law must secure a weighted average of .75. (The weighted average of a student is determined by dividing the total number of hours scheduled in the School of Law into the number of quality credits earned.)

Every student at the end of his second year in the School of Law must have earned a weighted average of .90 on his entire record.

Every student at the end of his third year in the School of Law must have earned a weighted average of 1.00 on his entire record.

Any student who fails to meet the requirements as above set out in his first or second year in the School of Law will be excluded. Any student who has been excluded from the School of Law for failure to meet these requirements will be readmitted only by special action of the Faculty.

No full-time student will be permitted to schedule more than fourteen hours of law work or work in another department of the University in any semester without special permission from the Dean of the School of Law.

No full-time student will be permitted to schedule less than ten hours of law work in any one semester.

A student whose work is unsatisfactory during any semester may be denied permission to carry a full schedule during the following semester.

No student will be examined in any course from which he has been absent more than twenty-five per cent of the scheduled classes. No credit will be given for any work done in such cases. Students are advised to consult with their various professors when they suspect that they may have excess absences. The faculty accepts no responsibility to inform any student of his excess absences prior to the issuance of the grades.

Fall semester grades will be announced to the students on the mid-semester date of the spring semester.

Tuition and Fees Tuition in the School of Law is $187.50 a semester for full-time students. Part-time students are charged at the rate of $15 a credit hour. The basic fee for full-time students includes registration, library, subscriptions to the Maroon and Wolf and Law Review, athletics, forum and certain other student activities. One-half of the basic fee is payable on the day of registration and the other half at the mid-semester date as published in the calendar. Any other arrangement for payment must be made before the completion of registration with the Treasurer of the University.

Students who do not register on the days scheduled for registration must pay a late registration fee of five dollars. This fee must be paid to the Bursar on the date the student does register.

All graduates must pay a graduation fee of $25.

Seniors must deposit $30 with the Bursar when caps and gowns are issued to them. These deposits will be refunded when the caps, gowns and hoods are returned to the Bursar's office after commencement.

A transcript fee of one dollar will be charged for each transcript issued by the School of Law after the first one. No certificate, transcript of record, or degree will be issued to a student whose financial account with the University is not in good standing.

Refunds Students who withdraw from the School of Law in any semester before the final date for schedule adjustments will be charged a $10 registration fee. Except for that fee, money paid as tuition will be refunded. No student is obliged to pay the second installment on his tuition in any semester unless his name remains on the student roll after the mid-semester date. A student's name will remain on the rolls until he has notified the Dean in writing that he intends to withdraw. The withdrawal date shall be determined as of the day when the letter is received by the Dean.

No refunds are made when a student is suspended, dismissed for disciplinary reasons, or fails to pass in prescribed courses.

Student Organizations The Delta Theta Phi, national legal fraternity, has established a chapter at the School of Law, to which law students are eligible for membership. Likewise, the Phi Delta Delta, national women's legal fraternity, has established a chapter at the School of Law, to which all of the women law students are eligible for membership.

The St. Thomas More Law Club was established in 1935 by the students of the day division, and all law students are eligible for membership. The law club, under the patronage of the English martyr and saint, is devoted to the stimulation of interest in organized legal research on the part of its membership, and particularly in the preparation and argument of mooted cases before appellate tribunals.

The Law Sodality is open to all Catholic students in the School of Law and administers to the spiritual welfare and needs of the members.

Law Review The faculty and students of the School of Law publish annually the Loyola Law Review. Through this medium all upperclassmen are afforded opportunities for legal research and writing. The officers of the student board are chosen from the high-ranking students of the senior class.

Awards and Prizes Each year the Faculty Award is given to the senior in the School of Law who has maintained the highest average over his entire law course.

The Dean's Award is given annually to the student who has maintained the highest average during his first year in the School of Law.

The Henry L. Sarpy Memorial Award is made each year by Mr. Leon Sarpy to the student in the School of Law who has excelled in the course in Louisiana Practice.

The Bureau of National Affairs has offered an award to the member of the graduating class in 1950 who shows the most satisfactory scholastic progress during the final school year. This award is a subscription to the United States Law Week published by the Bureau of National Affairs.
